IACP AGM 2013 – Keynote Speaker – Dr Harry Barry

We are delighted to announce that the Keynote Speaker at this year's AGM will be Dr Harry Barry.

Dr Barry is a best-selling author and medical doctor based in Drogheda, County Louth.

He has a particular interest in the area of mental health and has extensive experience in his practice of dealing with issues such as depression, addiction and anxiety.

He regularly features on national radio, print and TV to discuss mental health issues, including Today FM, Newstalk, The Irish Independent and The Late Late Show.

Dr Barry was moved to write 'Flagging the Problem' following a particularly tragic death by suicide in a local family and is absolutely committed to seeking to counteract the disruptive effects of mental illness both locally and nationally.

Other books by Dr Harry Barry: 'Flagging the Stress', 'Flagging the Therapy' and 'Flagging the Depression'.
