Irish Association of Suicidology - IAS Conference

The 16th Annual IAS Suicide Prevention conference is to take place on the 10th & 11th of October at the Mount Wolseley Hotel in Co Carlow.

The title of this year's conference is "Learning to Listen: A Suicide Prevention Conference" and it will be useful for those interested in learning more about suicide prevention, mental health issues, including adolescents, self-harm and eating disorders, and listening/language surrounding suicide prevention.

10th October

Day one will begin at 2pm with a research masterclass, where a number of new researchers will present their work to 4 Research Masters for feedback. Following on from the success of last year's event there will be a conference dinner at 7.30pm on the 10th Oct. (PLEASE NOTE: Day 1 of the conference is optional and there is no charge for attending, also note that there will be no CPD points awarded for attendance on Day 1))

11th October

The conference will start at 9.15am on the morning of the 11th October. Prof. Lars Mehlum of the National Centre for Suicide Research and Prevention in Norway and Dr. Heather Fiske are our 2 international speakers. Prof Mehlum will be giving an overview of results from a recent study of suicidal and self-harming adolescents and Dr Fiske will be exploring different aspects of the use of language in the field of suicide prevention. An Irish panel of speakers will also be present, Dr. Tony Bates, Headstrong, John Saunders, Shine and Harriet Parsons of Bodywhys and they will discuss the current issues of stigma and the still hidden issues relating to mental health in Ireland.

There will be three workshops on the afternoon of the 11th October exploring the theme of listening and language including the 'Human Library' a SeeChange innovation first debuted at the Volvo Ocean race celebrations in Galway this year, a session on mindfulness hosted by Headstrong and an opportunity to learn more about eating disorders with Bodywhys at a workshop entitled 'Eating Disorders: What helps and what hinders'

Cost of registration is €75 per person and includes all breaks and lunch.

Please note it is possible to access a full conference programme and book online at www.ias.ie. Special overnight rates for delegates have been arranged at the Mount Wolseley Hotel – please quote IAS on booking.

United Nations Development Programme – Job Opportunity (New York)

The United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) helps build nations that can withstand crisis, and drive and sustain the kind of growth that improves the quality of life for everyone. To do so, we need a strong and healthy work force that is resilient not only in crisis situations but also in our demanding everyday life.

For this reason, we are looking for a Psychosocial Counsellor who can provide staff with the support and necessary skills to manage stress, crisis and difficult situations for themselves, family members, and their colleagues.

Would you like to become part of UNDP and help empower lives and build resilient nations?

Do you have an advanced University degree in a mental health profession, at least seven years of international experience, and the necessary intercultural sensitivity?

Do you speak both English and French?

If yes, we would like to encourage you to apply on our job site http://jobs.undp.org/cj_view_job.cfm?cur_job_id=32943 before the closing date of 24 October 2012!
