Free Suicide or Survive (SOS) Wellness Workshop

SOS is delighted to announce we are holding a Wellness Workshop on Thursday, 27th March, 2014 in the Wisdom Centre, 25 Cork Street, Dublin 8.

This is a full day workshop running from 9.30am – 5pm with lunch included.

If you are in a position to share this event with your community via email or social media it would be very much appreciated.

The workshop is focused on wellness strategies for each and every one of us, it takes in the fullness of our mental health ie wellness and un-wellness and ways to manage it.

Our 3 facilitators come from very diverse backgrounds, ones background is as a Principal Clinical Psychologist & another is a motivational speaker while another comes from a lived life experience who is also a trained therapist, mental health advocate and teaches a foundation in counseling skills through Maynooth College.

Throughout the day the workshop will look at our thinking process, the wellness continuing, mindfulness, personality traits, the wheel of change and most importantly in a very interactive non-intrusive and fun way.

Areas covered on the day include relaxation and stress management, understanding the relationship between thoughts and emotions, developing a wellness toolkit and daily plan.
