

IACP and New Orleans University of Holy Cross
Present
Current Counselling Trends in Ireland and in the United States

Wednesday, 8 August 2018, Trinity College Dublin

9:30 – 10:00	Registration (outside the Emmett Theatre)
10:00 – 10:30	Welcome (general session in the Emmett Theatre)
10:30 – 10:40	Break
10:40 - 11:40	First presentation (3 at a time; 1 in the Emmett Theatre + 2 regular sized classrooms)
11:40 - 12:00	Coffee Break
12:00 - 13:00	Second presentation (3 at a time; 1 in the Emmett Theatre + 2 regular sized classrooms)
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch break (Lunch platter served outside the Emmett Theatre)
14:00 – 15:00	Third presentation (3 at a time; 1 in the Emmett Theatre + 2 regular sized classrooms)
15:00 – 15:15	Break
15:15 – 16:15	Fourth presentation (3 at a time; 1 in the Emmett Theatre + 2 regular sized classrooms)
16:15 – 16:30	Break
16:30 – 17:30	Fifth presentation (3 at a time; 1 in the Emmett Theatre + 2 regular sized classrooms)
17:45 – 19:00	Reception at the Dakota Bar

Topics the American Counselors will address during their 10 Presentations on 8 August 2018 at the Mini-Conference:

- Legal and Ethical Challenges in Counselling
- Counselling Around the World
- Counselling Those Who Abuse Substances to Relieve Pain
- Strengths-Based Counselling in the US
- Counselling Clients Who Self-Harm in the US
- Play Therapy in the US
- Self-Care and Wellness for Counsellors
- Treating Substance Abuse in the US
- Crisis Response Counselling in the US
- Couples and Family Counselling in the US

American speakers will include a Vice-President of the National Board of Certified Counselors-International, a counsellor who is also an attorney, counselling university professors, and experienced counselling practitioners.

Irish Speakers and Topics:

- Bernie Darcy, IACP Board of Directors: History of IACP and Counselling and Psychotherapy in Ireland – 10:40am
- Michelle Coyne, IACP Board of Directors: Work in a residential setting and with clients who experienced early childhood trauma – 12 noon
- Eoin Stephens: Working with Problematic Sexual Behaviour – 2pm
- Ravind Jeawon, Chiara Antolovi, Abeer Younis: Working with ethnic & culturally sensitive issues – 3:15pm
- Dr Sinead Reynolds, HSE Senior Operations Manager: An overview of the landscape of mental health services in Ireland with a focus on multidisciplinary services and evidence based service improvements – 4:30pm