

IACP Journal Article Index - Summer 2019 to 2012

Article Name	Author Name	Journal Issue
A simulated interview with William Glasser: Part 1 – An ideology about mental health	James C. Overholser, Ph.D., ABPP	Autumn 2019
Is the treatment of behavioural addictions fundamentally the same as the treatment of substance addictions?	Marie Healy	Autumn 2019
Breaking up is hard to do. An exploration of attachment styles as a predisposition to complicated grief disorder following relationship loss	Kaylene Petersen	Autumn 2019
Planning for our death/incapacitation as therapists	Mike Hackett	Autumn 2019
Working with Transgender People	The Transgender Equality Network Ireland (TENI) in conjunction with Ms. Terri O'Sullivan of Cork Counselling Services	Summer 2019
Fertility: What the statistics do not measure	Esther O'Neill	Summer 2019
Therapy in the 21st Century. A pimped profession?	Sheila J Peelo	Summer 2019
Something Larger: On sharing therapeutic case notes with children and young people	Mike Moss	Summer 2019
My First Known Blood Relative - An Exploration of Female 4 Adoptees who give Birth to Biological Children	Lynsey O'Kelly & Dr. Siobáin O'Donnell	Spring 2019
Can Relationships Survive Infidelity?	Brendan O'Shaughnessy	Spring 2019
Spirituality in the Recovery Process of Addiction. Is there an Impact on the Therapist?	Daniel Cleary	Spring 2019
Contextual - Conceptual Therapy (CCT) - A New Approach to Suicide Therapy	Gitti Maas	Spring 2019
Response to EugeneMcHugh's 'A Conversation on DSM-5 and its Usefulness in Counselling and Psychotherapy' - The Rogerian Perspective	Pat Comerford	Winter 2018

IACP Journal Article Index - Summer 2019 to 2012

Online Therapy: A business opportunity for the private practitioner - a Person-Centered perspective	Declan Peelo	Winter 2018
The Possible Person: Playfulness, expression, Trust-Building, & Meaning-Making with At-Risk Youth in Psychotherapy	Blake Griffin Edwards	Winter 2018
Exploring The Dynamics of Relational Trauma and the Organic, Energetic Process of Change - Therapeutic, Training and Research Perspectives	Rosie Burrows	Winter 2018
Embodied Collaborative Inquiry: a Pragmatic Practice-Based Research Approach	Billy Desmond	Autumn 2018
An Introduction to Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing (EMDR)	Peter Nevin	Autumn 2018
Pluralism: An ethical commitment to dialogue and collaboration	Dr. Marcella Finnerty, Ms. Caitriona Kearns, & Mr. David O'Regan	Autumn 2018
A Simulated Interview with Viktor Frankl: Part 3 - The Process of Psychotherapy	James C. Overholser	Autumn 2018
The Validity of the DSM: An overview	Dr. Terry Lynch	Summer 2018
A critical evaluation of Miller and Rollnick's Motivational Interviewing as an approach for working with substance misuse	Antoinette Copley	Summer 2018
Addiction and the Trauma Experience	Graham Gill-Emerson	Summer 2018
A Simulated Interview with Viktor Frankl: Part 2 - Searching for meaning during times of despair	James C. Overholser	Summer 2018
Egalitarianism in Therapeutic Dialogue: A Catalyst for Client Autonomy	Maurice Kinsella	Spring 2018
A Simulated Interview with Viktor Frankl: Part 1 - Freedom & Responsibility	James C. Overholser	Spring 2018
The Need for Therapists to Gain an Understanding of the Multiple Challenges Involved for Members of the Adoption Triad	Patricia Losty	Spring 2018

IACP Journal Article Index - Summer 2019 to 2012

A Conversation on DSM-5 and its Usefulness in Counselling and Psychotherapy	Eugene McHugh	Spring 2018